

MAKOM COMMUNITY'S PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

- Why Jewish Placemaking?

- Learning about Makom Community's Jewish Placemaking pedagogy that encourages children, in conversation with Jewish text, to transform their learning space into a place where they want to be in ways that are as wise and unique as they are.

- Jewish Placemaking through Text Study

- The 201 level after "Why Jewish Placemaking" and a text study experience for your staff that models Jewish Placemaking.

- Family Education & Jewish Placemaking

- Bridging the gap from the Jewish home to the Jewish classroom.

- Social, Emotional, and Spiritual Learning

- How to approach Jewish Learning with heart and a focus on application.

- Jewish Placemaking and Social Emotional Learning

- 201 after "Social, Emotional, and Spiritual Learning" and how to incorporate Jewish Placemaking Pedagogy.

- Using Design Thinking to Rethink Curriculum

- How to Frame Curriculum in Your Community's Values.

- Lesson Planning & Goal Setting

- This is a great session for Professional Development with your teaching staff.

- Relationship Building: The Bedrock for Jewish Placemaking

- How to strengthen relationships with existing families and with your teaching staff.

- Brit Building

- Learn how to create two-way promises with students, your teaching staff, and families in your community.

- Building a Class Where Everyone Loves to Be

- We know that the cause of challenging behavior in the classroom is a request for some kind of support. Join us to see how non-violent communication and needs orientation can transform a challenging moment into an opportunity for authenticity, vulnerability and empathy.

MAKOM COMMUNITY'S PROFESIONAL DEVELOPMENT

- Building Community through Electronic Communications
 - Learn how to strengthen your communications to help strengthen relationships and lower the separation between the classroom and the family home.
- Moving from Transactional Intake processes to Relational Enrollment
 - How to make enrollment in your school program more than a financial interaction.
- I am Hiring a New Education Director - Help! 101
 - This first part of the series is designed for the search committee - both lay leaders and professional staff. We will go over how to hear what your community needs, creating a job description, and how to create interview questions and rubrics.
- I am Hiring a New Education Director - Help! 201
 - This second part of the series is designed for after you find a New Education Director (Yay)! We will go over how to prioritize the first 90 days and what your organization can do to ease the onboarding process.
- Creating Evaluation Processes for my Community
 - It is always energizing to make changes to your education program. But how to determine if they are making the change you wish to see? Learn best practices to evaluate your education program beyond a survey.
- Strengthening Lay Leader & School Relationships
 - How to enjoy working with lay leaders and not dread it
- Improving Collaboration & Streamlining Projects
 - This is a great session for a team who is struggling to manage large, multi-step project using a task management system called MOCHA.

- Guided Observation of Philadelphia Lab School

- This includes a 30 minute preview meeting that discusses our program and reviews the day's lesson plans, a 90 minute observation (from 4:00-5:30 PM), and a 30 minute debrief meeting. This meeting can be right after the observation or scheduled for another time.

- Coaching

- We also offer one-one or two-one coaching with our Executive Director & Founder Beverly Socher-Lerner or Director of Strategy Terri Soifer. This a great opportunity for Education Directors to work on a specific goal or project or for Education Directors and their clergy, assistant directors, or lay leaders to strengthen their relationships.

FEE STRUCTURE

Makom Community is looking forward to hearing how we can support you! Our menu of Professional Development opportunities can support you as a professional, a director of a staff of teachers, and as a Jewish organizational leader.

Makom's Director of Strategy, Terri Soifer (terri@makomcommunity.org) is happy to have a free, 20 minutes meeting, to hear what your needs are and how Makom Community can be of assistance.

Our fee structure is as follows:
